Everest Panorama trek - 9 Days

Everest Panorama Trek as being one of the best places throughout the world for visiting the site for those people who love travelling. It has been one of the most loved trekking trails for visitors who make their trip to Everest Region. The lifestyle of the people and their ways of welcoming people in this region has made the tourists visit this place time and again. Everest Panorama Trek begins as soon as you land your feet in the land of Lukla, then the mountains trails begin where you have to pass through many Manes, Chaityas, prayer flags, Gombas, Monasteries, and big stones scripted in Tibetan words. Namche Bazaar is just there at the top after the big climb leaving behind the Jorselle village. Namche is the most visited town in this region where you get to buy different goods like Tibetan artefacts, trekking gears, clothing, foods, etc on every Saturday. Going through the trail you will also find the hidden hotel, interesting views, and "Everest view" in the dense forest of rhododendron, shrubs, and other trees. From here you will be able to view Mt. Everest, Lhotse, Amadablam, Thamserku and Tawoche. Then we will reach Khumjung where we will be able to see "Yeti", which is one of the main attraction of tourists and visitors.
