

Pikey Peak trek - Lower Everest region - 13 Days

If you are thinking for a short trek near the Everest region, Pikey Peak is less travelled trek route than the other areas which would be best for you. This trek takes you to beautiful area of the world highest peak, Mt. Everest and the rugged landscapes of the Everest region. The newly discovered Pikey Peak trekking route to the Everest region lies at an altitude of 4065 meters which is in the charming lower khumbu region of Nepal, in Solukhumbu District. The late Sir Edmund Hillary once said “Pikey Peak is the most astonishing place for observance of Mount.”

This trek is also known as the Dal Bhat Trek and is one of the best hill top destination that offers you stunning views of other neighbouring peaks of the region such as Mt. Dhaulagiri, Kanchanjunga, Lhotse, Makalu, and other snow-capped peaks. The trekking route passes through beautiful Sherpa villages, terraced field, and lush rhododendron forests. Along the way, you can interact with the local Sherpa community, experience the unique Sherpa culture and hospitality, and visit ancient monasteries.

Pikey peak is a less crowded trek in the Everest region, still popular among the trekkers and adventure enthusiasts seeking for quieter and off- the- beaten- path adventure. It offers a chance to explore the Himalayas while enjoying the rich cultural and natural beauty of the region.
